The University will be host to 83 students (and 26 sponsor-teachers) from secondary schools throughout B. C. March 31 and April 1, attending the "first annual" Humanities and Science Symposium. Selected students will present papers on a wide variety of topics. Details may be obtained from the University's organizing committee, DR. C. F. GOULSON (faculty of education), ANDREW CARPENTER (department of English), and DR. J. E. MCINERNEY (department of biology).

.....

DR. E. S. EFRAT (department of economics and political science) chaired a panel on "The Future of Canadian Federalism" March 18 in Tucson, Arizona, during the Western Political Science Convention.

.....

The McPherson Library will be open daily during the Easter weekend, with limited service. Hours for the weekend and on Monday, March 27, will be 2:00 to 10:00 p.m.

.....

PROFESSOR FRED MARTENS (faculty of education) offers information -- and perhaps a little advice -- to members of faculty who are interested in taking part in the YMCA 100-mile run. Running may be done at any time, but one group plan to meet regularly at 4:30 p.m. Record cards and details on the route are available at the physical education office.

.....

The Montreal office of Servizio Culturale Italiano at 1200 McGregor Avenue plans a symposium during EXPO 67 for professors of Italian origin resident in Canada. Enquiries would be welcome.

.....

The Modern Language Association of America and the University are sponsoring a forthcoming bibliography of 17th Century French prose fiction, prepared by DR. RALPH BALDNER (department of modern languages). The book will be published by the Columbia University Press.
